

SANDRA K. GUDORF

President, Downtown Dayton Partnership

Sandy Gudorf is president of the Downtown Dayton Partnership. In her role, Sandy works with numerous community partners to lead a variety of programs, activities and initiatives that help ensure downtown Dayton is a better place to do business, work, live and visit. Specifically, the Downtown Dayton Partnership focuses its work in five primary areas – job attraction and retention, housing development, strengthening downtown’s amenity base, enhancing downtown’s environment, and advocacy for downtown. Sandy is a graduate of Wright State University and resides in Clayton with her family.
