

Theresa Busher

Since February 1999, Theresa has served as the public affairs specialist for the Social Security offices of greater Dayton and Springfield. She has worked for the Social Security Administration since 1993, and has experience with all Social Security benefit programs, including retirement, disability and SSI. With her current public affairs position, Theresa acts as a Social Security spokesperson, media liaison, and public educator.

She currently resides in Washington Township with her husband Ed and their 5 children, two are in college ages 20 and 21 and three are at home, grades 9, 6 and 4.